Youth Recognition Day 2006

The City of Oakland's Youth Advisory Commission is sponsoring the annual Youth Recognition Day on Friday, June 30, 2006 with the Department of Human Services and the Office of Parks and Recreation.

The Youth Advisory Commission believes the city must take the time to recognize the leadership of youth in improving their communities, schools and families in Oakland. In the past, the City Council has responded with a Resolution creating Youth Recognition Day, a day to honor Oakland's history of youth movements and youth activism.

Young people will be selected and recognized at a ceremony and celebration in conjunction with the Office of Parks and Recreation's "Play Day on the Plaza." This event will be on Friday, June 30, 2006 from 11AM-4PM at Frank Ogawa Plaza in front of City Hall. In order to be considered for this honor, youth must be nominated and be between the ages of 11 and 18 years old. Not only will the youth be recognized by the city, they will have a chance to win a number of prizes including free passes to theme parks and movies, free classes through the City's Office of Parks and Recreation, and more!!

At a time when youth are more often noticed for the things they do wrong than the things they do right, it's time to recognize the positive things youth do to improve their schools, neighborhoods, communities and life! It's time to recognize that the city needs the leadership of youth. Be a part of this important day by nominating a young person to be honored at Youth Recognition Day!

To nominate a young person, please fill out the following nomination form and return it to the Oakland Youth Advisory Commission no later than 5:00PM on Wednesday, May 31, 2006. For more information please contact Andrea Tacdol, at ATacdol@Oaklandnet.com, or visit our website at:
